Chimpanzee Launched Into Space on Redstone Rocket

Firing Occurs Hours After Scheduled Time

Trip Heralded as Forerunner to First Flight by Human

BULLETIN
CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — A chimpanzee rode a Redstone rocket into space today, blazing the trail for the American astronauts.
The 60-foot rocket blasted off at 11:55 a.m. (EST). Its mission was to hurl the space ape to an altitude of 115 miles and 290 miles down the Atlantic missile range at a speed of 4,200 miles an hour.
Six of the seven astronauts were spectators at the launching. If the chimpanzee comes through the flight unharmed, one of the human space men may travel the same route within two months.

GETS ROCKET RIDE — A young chimpanzee is strapped in the launch capsule of a Redstone rocket on a 290-mile flight from Cape Canaveral, Fla., today. Men holding the chimpanzee are not identified by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration which released the picture.

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — Grinning and waving his arms, a 37½ pound male chimpanzee was transported in a capsule today and settled down for a ride into space on a Redstone rocket.

The chimp, designated merely No. 65, was chosen Monday night from a group of four males and two females for the hazardous journey.

Two and one-half hours before the scheduled launch time, about 8:30 a.m. EST, the chimp was transported to the launching area. He was a playful bundle of energy.

The target time passed and later the rocket was returned to its gantry, indicating that serious difficulties had been encountered and there might be a delay of hours.

In that case, there was a likelihood that the original chimp would be taken out of the capsule and replaced by his alternate or still another ape.

Main purpose of the flight will be to determine whether the chimp can perform tasks under extreme conditions of blastoff and re-entry and during a five-minute period of eerie weightlessness at the top of the arching trajectory.

They have been trained to conduct lever - pushing behavioral tasks while the capsule zips through space at 4,200 miles an hour.

Astronauts May Ride Soon
If the flight is completely successful, there is a good chance one of America's astronauts will take a similar rocket ride into space within two months.

A fleet of ships, planes and helicopters were stationed in the intended impact area 290 miles down range to attempt recovery of the space chamber and its tiny rider. The flight was planned to last 16 minutes.

Six of the seven U. S. astronauts were here for the vital test. The seventh, Virgil Grissom, was in

Sargus' Bill Would Extend Parole Chance

By DUANE E. CROFT

Salem News Staff Correspondent
COLUMBUS — State Sen. Edmund A. Sargus introduced a bill in the General Assembly Monday night to reduce the crimes for which probation is prohibited.

It would leave intact the ban on probation for persons convicted of murder and rape, but it would permit probation for six crimes now included in the prohibition: Arson, burglary of an inhabited dwelling, incest, sodomy, attempted rape and administration of poison.

Four Mahoning county legislators sponsored six bills as the Assembly began its fifth week of work.

Sens. Charles J. Carney and Stephen Olenick, Youngstown Democrats, co-sponsored a measure to permit full-time deputy motor vehicle registrars to issue watercraft licenses.

Carney introduced additional bills to set a ceiling of 25 per cent on fees charged for securing employment for a worker; to make Great Lakes seamen eligible for unemployment compensation the year

Nation's Rivers Jammed by Ice

Hudson Frozen Solid; Ohio Traffic Slowed

By The Associated Press

Despite a warming trend over much of the nation the past two days, the icy grip of prolonged frigid temperatures is threatening to choke off traffic on major waterways in the Midwest and Northeast.

Inland waterways from the Mississippi to the Hudson were caught in the tightening stranglehold of ice as the cold spell entered its 13th day for many areas.

The Hudson was frozen solid from West Point northward to a day with a convoy of four vessels locked in ice reported to be 18 inches thick. The convoy has been battling its way from Albany since Friday on the 150-mile trip to New York City.

Riverboat men waged a losing battle against the ice-choked Mississippi near Cairo, Ill. Three ice jams, two five miles long and one eight miles long, have all but halted traffic on the big river. A barge official said it would take 50-degree temperatures and rain to break the jams. The reading early today was 21.

One Mississippi towboat captain described the ice situation as the worst he'd seen in 25 years.

At Grand Haven, Mich., Coast Guard ships struggled to free a cutter locked tight in Lake Michigan ice. Three other ships were freed from dense ice field Monday. One of them, the Milwaukee Clipper, has been ice-locked three times in as many days while carrying passengers and freight from Milwaukee to Muskegon, Mich.

Republicans Rip JFK's Message To Congress

Maneuver To Slow Down Proposals Cited by President

WASHINGTON (AP) — Any chance President Kennedy may have had for a congressional honeymoon vanished today as Republicans maneuvered to slow down a program he said was needed to reverse an economic downturn.

With some conservative exceptions, Democrats called Kennedy's State of the Union message a realistic challenge to the American people to face up to their problems at home and abroad.

Influential Republicans took sharp issue with the President's contention that the U.S. economy was in serious trouble and needed immediate corrective measures.

Other GOP members objected strenuously to what they called Kennedy's "downgrading" of America's position in the world.

Others accused the President of injecting partisanship into the blueprint he drew for the critical days he saw ahead.

Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, Senate GOP leader, signalled a slowdown by calling for extensive committee hearings on most of the proposals Kennedy said he would submit to Congress in the next two weeks. Dirksen said that if they could Republicans would see that there would be "no ill-digested stuff rushed through Congress."

The Illinois senator said that if Kennedy's recommendations for a food for peace program, establishment of a peace corps and a conservation corps and aid for distressed areas all were accepted by Congress, budget balancing would go down the drain.

Morton Raps Address

Sen. Thurston B. Morton, R-Ky., Republican national chairman said Kennedy's address, delivered to a joint session of Congress Monday, "echoes the cynical brassiness" of his presidential campaign.

"At the same time," Morton said, the speech "blends it with timidity and excessive caution."

Morton said there was no need for America "to face the world at large with a national countenance steeped in gloom and doubt."

Morton also questioned how Kennedy intended to remain within the budget presented by former President Dwight D. Eisenhower and also provide stronger defenses, hospitals, aid to education.

U.S. Admiral, Ship Captain Confer

Santa Maria May Disembark 600 Passengers Wednesday

RECIFE, Brazil (AP)—A U. S. admiral met Portuguese rebel Capt. Henrique Galvao at sea today in a conference that could mean swift freedom for the nearly 600 passengers aboard the captive liner Santa Maria.

Atlantic Fleet headquarters in Norfolk, Va., announced the rendezvous of Rear Adm. Allen E. Smith Jr., and Galvao who seized the $16.6 million ship Jan. 22.

Smith said later his first talks with Galvao were "in general good." In a report to fleet headquarters the admiral quoted Galvao as saying he believes the new Brazilian administration taking office today will permit the Santa Maria to enter Recife Wednesday.

Smith and the Navy's Caribbean commander, sped out from Recife at daybreak aboard the U. S. destroyer Gearing to a point about 35 miles offshore where Galvao waited for the inauguration today of a new Brazilian president who has informally offered him and the ship safe haven.

The Navy announced the admiral went aboard the Santa Maria at 6:50 a. m. This conformed to original plans. It was reported here Monday night that Galvao had asked that the meeting be held on the destroyer.

The Gearing halted about 500 yards from the Santa Maria and Smith and his party, including two American diplomats posted in Brazil, made the crossing in a motor whaleboat.

A Recife tug carried 61 newsmen to the area, but was requested by the Navy to keep some distance away so as not to impede the Navy's operations.

The U. S. destroyer Damato was also on hand and two others, the destroyers Wilson and Vogelgesang, were expected to join forces with her and the Gearing.

Salem Firm's New Process to Be Utilized

Announcement Made In New York Of Revolutionary Step

The Salem Rolling Mill Division of the E. W. Bliss Co. will furnish its patented rolling and fabricating equipment for converting copper powder into strip metal for construction of a $34 million plant which eventually will turn low grade ores in the Philippine Islands into high quality copper.

The order to the Bliss Co. here is reputed between $4 and $5 million, and comes on the heels of a recent $1.5 million automotive order received by Bliss two weeks ago.

The proposed new plant in the Philippines could signal the end of the age-old method of producing copper through melting processes.

In the copper powder process, which was developed through cooperative research by Bliss and another Salem industry, the Electric Furnace Co., no melting step is involved.

In the Philippine installation, the copper will be converted into strip, tubing and wire.

Announced in New York

Announcement of this new type of copper producing plant was made today at a press conference held jointly by Foster Wheeler Corporation, prime contractor for the proposed project, and the E. W. Bliss Co., which will furnish the equipment for converting powder into strip.

Also scheduled to participate are Chemetals Corporation of New York, 20 per cent of which is owned by the Bliss Company, and Sherritt Gordon Mines, Ltd., of Toronto, which own and license the chemical reduction techniques.

The Export-Import Bank of Washington simultaneously announced approval of a $13-million loan to Marinduque Iron Mines Agents, Inc., for construction of the proposed plant. This amount, the largest ever made to a private Philippine company, will be matched by Marinduque in pesos.

The funds will be used to set up the world's first integrated copper, zinc and ammonium sulphate plant which will change ores into finished copper products by chemical leaching, gaseous reduction, and newly-developed rolling methods.

Jesus Cabarrus, president of Marinduque, feels that the proposed new plant on Iligan Bay on Mindanao Island, will have important effects on future copper producing facilities, since the capital cost of the installation to produce high purity copper is 40 per cent less than convention smelting, refining and casting plants.

Another major advantage, according to J. Ralph Patterson, president of the E. W. Bliss Co., is that the capital cost of facilities to produce strip and tubing from copper powder is at least 50 per cent less than for conventional fabricating techniques, starting from cake, ingot or billets.

The newly hired employees will replace six discharged by the commissioners at their meeting Friday.

In other action the commissioners released Mrs. Carrie Strouse of Leetonia, Mrs. Helen Conley of Salineville, Mrs. Mary Alice Rumberger and Mrs. Genevieve Brown, both of Lisbon, employees of the TB Clinic. Dr. F. G. Kravec is the diagnostic and film reader of the clinic.

No new employees were hired for the TB Clinic.

Two Steubenville Escapees Nabbed

STEUBENVILLE, Ohio (AP) — Only four of six escapees from the Jefferson County jail here were at large today following the capture of two in Houston, Tex.

Arrested by Houston detectives Monday were two Jefferson County youths, John Miller Bucy, 18, of Rt. 1, Mingo Junction, and Daniel Andrew Carpenter, 23, of Adena.

Police said the two were picked up in a stolen car. They then led officers to another car, which they abandoned in Houston after stealing it in Steubenville on Saturday, the day of the escape. Two autos were reported stolen near the jail here shortly after the break.

Houston police turned the case over to the FBI for prosecution under the Dyer Act as a federal offense involving interstate transportation of a stolen vehicle.

Bucy and Carpenter were being held on auto theft and grand larceny charges, respectively, when the six prisoners used a broken bar from a jail window to chisel a hole 18 inches square through a brick wall of the first-floor bullpen.

House Votes Today on Issue

Rayburn Has Thin Edge On Committee Change

WASHINGTON (AP) — House Speaker Sam Rayburn, D-Tex., appeared to have a razor-thin edge as the House faced a showdown vote today on his plan to enlarge the Rules Committee.

But his apparent hairline margin could vanish before the actual voting gets under way. Last-minute maneuvering plus possible absenteeism could swing the decision either way in the vote slated for early afternoon.

There was a slim outside chance that a showdown might be averted between Rayburn and Rep. Howard W. Smith, D-Va., Rules Committee chairman. Smith has fought any move to enlarge his group.

Talk of compromise still was in the air, although several proposed compromises have been turned down.

The Rules Committee frequently has deadlocked 6-6 on questions of sending legislation to the House

Even Russians Play It Up

JFK's Message Wins Wide Acclaim In Western Europe

LONDON (AP)—President Kennedy's State of the Union message won wide acclaim in newspapers of Western Europe today.

It even received a kind of pat on the back in Moscow, where newspapers published up to a half page of excerpts, including Kennedy's outline of areas where U.S. and Soviet interests conflict.

No Moscow paper gave any reaction or comment to the speech, but the range of excerpts they published were remarkable. As expected, they included in detail the President's views on the internal U.S. situation, the dollar problem, the recession and school shortages, as well as his appeal to the Soviet Union for scientific cooperation in outer space.

But they also included such items not normally found in Soviet papers as Kennedy's declaration that "we must never forget our hopes for the ultimate freedom and welfare of the eastern European peoples" and his declaration that neither the Soviet Union nor Communist China has yielded their ambitions for world domination.

AP Chief of Bureau Preston Grover cabled from Moscow that such statements were likely to provoke strong reaction in Soviet circles.

In general, the Western press expressed the view that the speech had cleared the international air and might serve to rouse the United States from a long sleep.

The London Daily Express headline — "Wake up, Americans!" — was typical.

The independent Die Welt of Hamburg, West Germany commented: "The things Americans were told yesterday about their economy, the dollar, unemployment, and lack of scientific education will produce some grave head-shaking."

"But they will also be able to breathe with relief. Finally they were told how things stand. And since they are realists they will shift into faster gear."

Rome's independent Il Tempo declared that "under the guidance of the most typical representative of the young generation, the United States has passed from defensive and passive resistance to the offensive."

In Paris, the leftist Combat described the speech as a rude awakening for Americans but said Kennedy's aim was to move the country into action "without panic and without fear."

Other comment: Some West Berlin newspapers were concerned over Kennedy's omission of any reference to continuing East-West tension in the former German capital city.

Britain's conservative Daily Mail compared Kennedy to Sir Winston Churchill because both the newspaper said, were not afraid to tell the people the truth.

DiSalle Sends Bills Previously Defeated Back to Legislature

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Democratic Gov. Michael V. DiSalle is dusting them off again... conflict of interest, criminal conspiracy the utility rate base formula, capital punishment, campaign spending limits.

All the measures—one-time losers already—will be sent back to the legislature for another study the governor says. Special messages will accompany each measure.

DiSalle sent the conflict-of-interest message to the Republican-controlled General Assembly Monday night. Republican House Speaker Roger Cloud of Logan County promised: "We'll put it in committee and give it a whirl."

Both Cloud and Senate Majority Leader C. Stanley Mechem, R-Athens, told newsmen they haven't read this year's version of the conflict-of-interest bill which died in the Senate State Government Committee in 1959 without a hearing.

The governor's message on the measure he confidently predicted will "come someday, maybe when some fresh people will accept it as part of a campaign for public office" caused scarcely a ripple among the lawmakers started their fifth work week.

The message was not read aloud in either house. It was distributed to the desk of each legislator. It will be printed in the journal of the House. The Senate referred the unread message to its Judiciary Committee without instructions that it be printed in the Senate journal.

Briefly, the DiSalle proposal would include state officials — elected or appointed — under a present law which prohibits local officials from having any interest in private contracts. It also would those who pull the strings on organized gambling and vice.

In the utility field, DiSalle says he will have a "very fully back-grounded" message in support of his view that the Utilities Commission in setting utility rates should give equal weight to the present formula — reproduction cost new, less observed depreciation (generally known as RCN) — and a "fair value" formula.

At least two other special messages will deal with the governor's opposition to capital punishment and his belief that state law should set limits on spending in political campaigns.

DiSalle held a news conference before the conflict-of-interest message was delivered to the legislators. Mechem and Cloud held one afterward.

During the postsession conference, Cloud expressed some unhappiness with legislators — and newsmen — who complain that the present session is slow-moving. He said a slow pace in the first six weeks is customary.

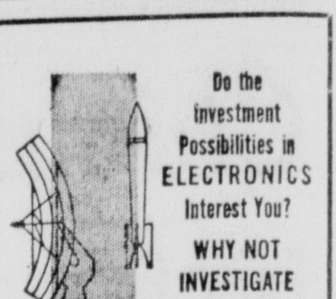

"I don't know of any way to avoid it," he remarked. "We try to expedite things, but we spend about six weeks talking to groups who want to bring in legislative programs — getting them straightened out."

TRAIN SERVICE DROPPED CLEVELAND (AP) — After the New York Central's Ohio State Limited pulls out of Limedale Wednesday evening no more trains will stop at the West Side station that once handled up to 49 trains a day. Before diesels, trains used to stop there to switch from steam to electric locomotives for the run into Cleveland Union Terminal.

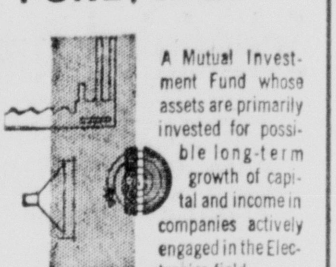

Central officials told the Utilities Commission the railroad could save $31,000 a year by closing the station and the PUCO granted permission Monday.

tion, medical care for the aged and expanded foreign aid programs.

Morton's remarks were in a statement issued through the Republican National Committee.

Morton's initial reaction on Capitol Hill to Kennedy's address was in a different vein. He said then that, on the whole, Kennedy had "made a frank and forthright statement of the situation."

Called Analysis Too Black

Morton added, however, that he thought the President's analysis of the domestic situation was too black and "too negative."

Democratic leaders made it clear they would push for speedy enactment of Kennedy programs despite Republican opposition and some possible desertions from Democratic ranks.

Republicans, who make up roughly one-third of the membership of each house, could not by themselves halt Kennedy's program. But there was every sign that their traditional allies, Southern Democratic conservatives, would be at their side fighting against many Kennedy spending proposals.

committee by an 8-7 edge.

The latest compromise move to stave off a fight almost certain to split Democratic ranks for some time was initiated by Rep. Francis E. Walter, D-Pa.

Walter came up with a plan to let the House itself decide what bills it will consider, and under what conditions, if the Rules Committee deadlocks.

The showdown on the Rayburn plan originally was scheduled for last Thursday but Rayburn put it off until today.

United Churches Plan For Rally On Sunday

Two area churches are among 19 congregations of the United Church of Christ participating in the five-day Teaching, Reaching, Preaching Mission Program which will begin Sunday.

Dr. O. Walter Wagner, executive director of Metropolitan Church Federation of Greater St. Louis, will be the keynote speaker for the rally to be held Sunday at 3 p.m. in Memorial Auditorium at Canton. The rally will also feature an 800-voice choir under the direction of Robert Fountain of the Oberlin Conservatory of Music.

Dr. Wagner, an outstanding clergyman, author and world traveler, he was formerly a member of the World Service Staff of the Evangelical and Reformed Church. He has traveled extensively through Europe, the Middle and Far East on special foreign study missions and was in Africa this past year.

Guest missionaries will be conducting special services in the churches Monday through Friday evenings.

Rev. Edward Spindler of Buffalo, N.Y., will be at St. Jacob's Church near Lisbon and Rev. Joseph Kim of Youngwood, Pa., is guest speaker at the Bethel Church, RD. Beloit. Rev. A. A. Koser and Rev. Richard E. Borngen are pastors of these churches, respectively.

Santa Maria

Smith's mission was to arrange the release of the passengers — about 42 of them Americans — caught up in the seafaring saga of political intrigue. The Navy hoped that Galvao would bring the liner into Recife so that they would not have to undergo a risky transfer at sea to the Gearing and three other U.S. destroyers in the area.

Ready To Unload Tourists

Galvao declared his readiness to unload the trapped tourists, but he was awaiting a promise of immunity from Brazil's new president, Janio Quadros, for himself, his band of some 70 self-styled revolutionists and the $16.6 million prize they seized in the Caribbean nine days ago.

Galvao hoped that Quadros taking office at noon, would give him an official promise that neither he nor the Santa Maria would be turned over to Portuguese Premier Antonio de Oliveira Salazar.

Retiring President Juscelino Kubitschek opened the door to the rebels as political refugees but refused to let them keep the liner they claim as "liberated" Portuguese territory. Quadros said unofficially earlier this week that he would not seize the ship for Portugal.

The 20,906-ton Santa Maria circled through the night in the Atlantic 35 miles offshore, awaiting the salpboard conference of Smith and the rebel leader. The American admiral had sent word the disembarkation of passengers would take place today — "if possible."

Galvao told a U.S. Navy plane circling overhead Monday night that he hoped to make a dash for this port on the Brazilian Atlantic bulge once Quadros takes over the presidency.

The U.S. Navy apparently was making alternate preparations to remove the passengers in the event the rebel leader gets skittish at the last minute about putting into port.

The Santa Maria radio officer sent a confident message that if everything goes well at the Smith-Galvao shipboard conference, "We will be looking forward to arriving in Recife."

A close political associate of the incoming president, Gov. Carlos Lacerda of Guanabara State Rio de Janeiro, messaged the rebel leader to stay clear of all Brazilian ports until Quadros was inaugurated.

Five Injured On Highways In Collisions

Five persons were injured and four arrested following a rash of accidents on Columbiana County highways Monday.

Betty Louise Austin, 32, and her son, Russell, 5, of RD 1 Home- worth, were treated at Alliance City Hospital for injuries received in a two-car crash at 4:35 p.m. on Twp. Rd. 703, just south of Home- worth.

Mrs. Austin suffered a laceration of her forehead and Russell received a laceration of the chin.

The State Patrol said the car driven by Mrs. Austin and one operated by Myron Leroy Pearson, 35, of RD 5, Alliance, collided near the center of the road on a curve. The road was narrowed to one lane by snow drifts on both sides. Both cars received extensive damage.

Raymond McDaniel, 48, of Youngstown was taken to East Liverpool City Hospital with contusions of the head and nose after his car went off the right side of the road and rolled over on Rt. 30, north of East Liverpool.

This accident occurred at 4:40 p.m. The car was damaged extensively. McDaniel was cited for driving while under the influence of alcohol.

Erma Larrey, 21, of Salineville suffered contusions of both legs and a chin laceration when the car in which she was a passenger collided with a truck at 4:25 p.m. at the intersection of Rt. 39 and the Oak Ridge Church Rd.

Miss Larrey was a passenger in a car operated by James Larrey, 45, of Salineville. The State Patrol said a truck, driven by Thomas E. Lanham, 36, of Wellsville was making a left turn as the Larrey car attempted to pass. Both vehicles were damaged extensively.

Police said Jack Dorrain Lineberry, 25, of New Philadelphia was traveling north on N. Lincoln Ave., following a truck. The truck slowed down but when Lineberry applied his brakes his car skidded on the ice and snow into the cement light pole snapping it off at the base.

The cars were damaged extensively when they met head-on just west of the crest of a hill.

Leetonia Is Cited

Bernard Hinerman, 59, of 619 Columbia St., Leetonia, was cited for reckless operation following a one-car accident on Rt. 45, three and a half miles north of Lisbon at 11:55 p.m. The Patrol reported Hinerman lost control of his car, went off the left side of the road and struck a culvert.

Michael W. College, 24, of Fredericktown, Pa., was cited for failure to stop in an assured clear distance which, the Patrol said, caused a two-car accident at 2:20 p.m. on Rt. 45, two miles south of Salem.

The Patrol reported that Herbert Steinbaugh, 58, of 231 S. Lincoln Ave., Lisbon, slowed down and was struck from behind by the College vehicle.

Motorist Is Cited Following Mishap

A New Philadelphia driver was cited into Mayor Dean Cranmer's court for reckless operation after his car skidded on the icy pavement at 1:30 a.m. today and broke off a city-owned electric light pole on N. Lincoln Ave., near E. 5th St.

Castro Holds Up Verdict on Yanks

HAVANA (AP)—Prime Minister Fidel Castro's regime still has not indicated what it will do with six Americans tried by a military tribunal on charges of trying to aid anti-Castro rebels.

Castro — reportedly considering the fate of the six himself — has sent hundreds of his foes to the execution wall after trial on similar conspiracy charges. There is speculation he might not be so harsh with the Americans, as a goodwill gesture toward the new Kennedy administration.

The prosecution demanded the death sentence in a 2½-hour trial Saturday in ancient La Cabana fortress. The Americans claimed they sailed to Havana in a stolen boat to help defend the Castro revolution.

They are George R. Beck, 24, of Norton, Mass.; Tommy L. Baker, 28, of Dothan, Ala.; Donald Joe Green, 28, of Gastonia, N.C.; James E. Bean, 34, of Cedar Falls, N.C.; Alfred Eugene Gibson, 32, of Mount Gilead, N.C., and Leonard Louis Schmidt, 21, of Chicago.

Every two minutes the blue light will blink on for five seconds. If the animal does not punch the left lever in this five-second period he gets a shock. The white light flashes on whenever he strikes a lever, telling him he is responding correctly.

Removing the Causes of Friction

Sooner or later, public opinion will make an adjustment to the Kennedy administration's policy for handling the problem of American-Soviet relations.

It is apparent that President Kennedy and his advisers are trying to remove causes of friction that could continue to keep the relations inflamed. It is apparent that the Kremlin is thinking in the same direction. There could be no other reason for its release of John R. McKone and Freeman B. Olmstead, the two Air Force captains who survived the Russian attack on the RB-47 plane last July 1, when it was operating close to Russian territory.

The Kremlin always knows the U.S. position on points of difference between it and the United States. It is kept informed of U.S. opinion by the world's most elaborate and active organization of spies. The Kremlin is never naive about American opinion. It knew its policy of holding these two men was the most aggravating thing it could do.

It released them at the outset of a new administration for a particular effect. It wanted to make a gesture of conciliation—not friendship, just conciliation. The Kennedy administration has responded with a gesture of conciliation of its own—a declaration that no aerial spying will be permitted. There will be no more U2 incidents, and that might mean there would be no more RB-47 incidents, either.

It might mean there would be no more incidents of any kind. It could mean the end of the nagging that has inflamed American-

Russian relations—the nagging reminder of two children pestering each other were it not for the mushroom cloud that now looms over every act of bad will.

The United States could remain as determined as ever not to yield to the Soviet Union. The Kremlin could be equally determined to yield nothing to the United States. Each could intensify its drive to destroy its rivals by attrition and the power of example. Both could step up the power of their appeals to nations actually or potentially friendly to them.

But if there were to be quiet diplomacy with no inflammatory statements, the atmosphere of tension that has surrounded American-Russian relations since the end of World War II could be broken.

Public opinion could grow accustomed to days, weeks and months without exchanges of insults. There might even be an end to the practice of referring to the Soviet Union as "the enemy," which it is not in fact. Russia is officially an ally of the United States.

This would take a lot of getting used to if it happened.

Some warn that it would be dangerous because Americans might be lulled to sleep by a false sense of security. That would not be likely.

No one is going to accuse the Kennedy administration of being soft on communism even if it succeeds in giving Americans fewer nervous moments about what Communists are going to do next.

Anything to Stop a Precedent

The near-disastrous harbor strike that paralyzed transportation in much of the East and was spreading to the Midwest showed what can happen later this year if U.S. railroads try to regain control of their management rights.

The harbor strike that began in New York was set off by a railroad effort to specify how many men should be in the crew of harbor tugs operated by railroads. Unions representing tugboatmen resisted.

They found ready sympathy among other railroad employees because the issue of cutting tugboat crews is the same as the issue of cutting tugboat crews. On one side is management's claimed prerogative to manage. On the other side is the union's claimed prerogative to provide job security without regard to management's policies. The unions did not want a precedent established.

A public commission headed by former

Secretary of Labor Mitchell is studying the issue. When its report is made late this year, the issue will be joined, in the same way it was joined when the steel industry tried to assert its management rights to revise work rules that were adding needless expense to steelmaking in the United States. That set off a 116-day strike that the steel industry and its employees could not afford.

The new secretary of labor, Arthur J. Goldberg, eased tension in the harbor strike by persuading railroad management to forget about cutting tugboat crews on tugboats for the time being. This was the formula for stopping the steel strike—forget about the issue for the time being.

The formula has a weakness. It does not take into account that competitors look upon such postponements as a subsidy. Anything that adds to railroad costs subsidizes trucker. Anything that adds to the production costs of steelmaking in the United States is good news for steelmakers abroad. In the long run, the people who bargaining for job security jeopardize their jobs.

"Me? I'm a Hungry Statistic"

Inside Labor By Victor Riesel

There is a mystery man in Jim Hoffa's life. His business, for the most part, has been seeking out those who deal in money—real money—and then offering them loans of teamsters' funds in the millions.

Benjamin Dranow, by name, he has operated out of plush Manhattan, Miami and Beverly Hills apartments—although he could always be counted on to turn up where a quick buck could be made. There is, for example, a phone call he put in on the morning of Oct. 8, 1958.

He wanted to borrow money that day for a project in which Jim Hoffa was interested. At the other end of the wire was Claude E. Davis, president of the Barnett National Bank of Cocoa, Florida. Ben Dranow made a proposal.

If Mr. Davis' bank would lend the Dranow operation some money, Dranow would see to it that the teamsters deposited $1 million in the Cocoa bank.

FURTHERMORE, the money would be left there interest free and what bank couldn't use such nicely liquid assets?

Mr. Davis thought the proposal sounded good—too good. He asked Dranow for references. The caller reeled off a string of banks with which he and the teamsters had connections.

In some of them the teamsters had more than connections—they had millions. In some they had stock. Mr. Davis listened politely. Then he checked it all out.

Then he turned it down cold and later testified to the details before the McClellan committee.

The Cocoa bank president learned that the money was to go into an effort by Dranow to save the Sun Valley project—the land-development scheme involved in Jim Hoffa's recent indictment.

Soon Robert Kennedy, then the McClellan committee's chief counsel, learned of the attempted deal. What galled him was the fact that he had exposed the Sun Valley land-selling scheme just 21 days earlier.

For the Sun Valley operation, the teamsters had thrown $500,000 into the First National Bank of Orlando—interest free. That bank is 42 miles from Cocoa. Dranow merely figured bad financial news doesn't fly fast.

SUCH CASH operations have intrigued the new attorney general and other federal authorities for some time now because of the almost unbelievable total of teamsters' pension and welfare fund loans.

Some experts place them at $100 million. This was the figure given this columnist by McClellan committee staffers last year.

Many of the loans have been for the gayest of motels strung across the South from Georgia to Louisiana, from Savannah to Miami.

Not all loans have run so high. There have been real small ones—such as $1 million to two Cleveland race tracks.

Another million or so went into a Michigan land development. On this one the Teamsters' funds lost $700,000, according to Sen. McClellan.

Hundreds of thousands of additional dollars have been lost through the placement of interest-free loans and deposits such as those described earlier.

ALL LOANS were—and are—covered by the proper notes and cash book deposit records. But this, of course doesn't preclude millions of dollars worth of investments through middlemen who led the teamsters into mortgages which had to be foreclosed.

There is the Everglades Hotel in Miami, for example. Originally a Teamsters fund held a $4.3 million mortgage on the hotel. Payments were not kept up. The teamsters bought the property for $2.5 million after they foreclosed the mortgage.

No one will really know for a while just how all this financial wizardry and these mystery middlemen have affected the teamsters' fortunes. But the federalists have been taking a real close look.

Confusion In Capital

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Kowtowing to Khrushchev Cited

Confusion is perhaps too strong a word to characterize the first week of President Kennedy's administration but a lack of co-ordination was palpably evident.

Adlai Stevenson, for instance, as ambassador to the United Nations, made important comments at a press conference in New York about getting friendly with Red China and on other points of policy that one would think should properly have come either from the secretary of state or from the President. Mr. Stevenson said he "guessed" that Mr. Kennedy would like to have a conference soon with Mr. Khrushchev.

Secretary Rusk, on his part, was busy the same day explaining to the press in Washington that some of the things he had written a few months ago about the undesirability of summit conferences as a means of practical diplomacy should be viewed in a new light. He said that "on principle" the summit conference idea shouldn't be excluded and that "the flexibilities we need in the conduct of diplomacy" shouldn't be limited.

The White House let it be known promptly, moreover, that Mr. Stevenson wasn't reflecting the President's views about a Khrushchev visit. Now everybody knows that, if the Soviet premier comes to the United Nations meetings in New York, he would probably have to be invited to Washington.

There's a big difference between virtually inviting or urging the Soviet dictator publicly to come and dealing with the matter in diplomatic fashion once he is here. Then there was the spectacular incident in which Mr. Kennedy participated—the welcome to the returned fliers. The President himself handled the problem of what to do about letting the RB 47 fliers talk to the press.

He conferred with them at the airport and the word immediately went forth that no reporters would be allowed to interview them.

The impression given was that any information made public might hurt Soviet-American relations. Just why this should be so is a mystery. Certainly, when the U 2 incident occurred, Mr. Kennedy was vocal and so were other Democrats.

They demanded to know the whole truth and the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, after an extensive inquiry, made a lengthy report of criticism on the subject.

It can be taken for granted that no such investigation will be made now, eager though the Republicans, led by Sen. Styles Bridges, the able senator from New Hampshire may be to get at the truth.

THE AMERICAN people have been told now for several years by the Democrats that they have a "right to know" what's going on. But the gag on the returned fliers appears to be a glaring exception. Maybe there is a good reason. Did the American plane really venture too close to Soviet territory? The United States regards everything beyond the three-mile limit in coastal waters as international and open to the aircraft and ships of all countries except in time of declared war.

The Soviet Union considers 10 miles to be the limit in peacetime. Was the American plane far beyond 10 miles? If so, why doesn't the United States say so and offer the evidence that the returned fliers can give—if, indeed, they can state positively where they were when shot down?

The world needs to know whether they were forced down without a chance to go back and also to be advised what happened to the other fliers reported missing. The censorship now imposed prevents it. Maybe it will be lifted later on.

MR. KENNEDY himself did something else which later he may regret. He told the State Department to make public the opinion polls concerning American prestige abroad. This arose as an issue during the campaign and the State Department then remained silent.

Mr. Kennedy attacked the department's policy. Naturally, when he took office, the reporters pressed for the same information. So he ordered the data revealed. Does this mean that hereafter every opinion poll will be made public even if it shows that the Kennedy administration has not lifted American prestige abroad high enough to meet popular expectations at home.

Then there is the matter of the censorship of the speeches of the military fliers. As is customary, one of the addresses was sent last week to the White House for advance perusal but it was suggested there that references to the Soviets in Admiral Burke's speech be toned down.

THE IDEA seems to be to curry favor with the Communists just now. It may be wise always to keep the military folks from indulging in international politics by their speeches but was it wise to emphasize a routine procedure?

Why wasn't censorship imposed on how the admiral's address was handled? The impression now given is that all speeches by high officials are to be censored primarily to meet a new specification which says, in effect, "be kind to Khrushchev."

This seems a strange way to start dealing with a man who gets tougher when his opponent seeks to soften. It seems strange, too, to be encouraging the Soviet premier to make a trip to America when the whole world knows that he insulted the President of the United States and deliberately broke up the last summit conference because this suited his propaganda game.

There are many here who, recalling past behavior of the Moscow dictator, think that to kowtow to him can only mean humiliation in store for the United States—and perhaps war at the end of the road if the spirit of Munich is revived.

Effect of Stardom

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Success takes all the fun out of life for some people.

It turns them sour and gives them a grudge against the world.

Stardom has worked the other way for Jack Lemmon, who last year became one of the top ten film boxoffice draws. He still gets a huge kick out of his rise to celebrity status, but isn't overly impressed with it.

Jack came here for a brief fun ride on the Manhattan roller coaster after completing his latest movie comedy role in "The Wackiest Ship in the Army."

Asked if success had made any drastic change in his life, Lemmon, who happens to come from a wealthy Boston family, made a mock grimace and said: "Success is a very tricky word. It is already some one else's opinion of you—and not your own."

"A man who makes a million dollars isn't really a success in his own eyes unless he feels happy and fulfilled."

"You have to do things to fill your own needs—if you want to stay healthy."

At 35 the slender dark-haired actor still admits to a couple of repressed desires, neither of which, however, is exactly making him miserable.

He'd like to write a hit song and he'd like to appear in a hit Broadway play.

Jack loves what he calls "piano doodling," and the result is some 400 unpublished tunes.

Jack's two stabs at Broadway fame have been almost as unsuccessful as his songs. His most recent play, "Face of a Hero," folded after seven weeks. But he wants to try again next year.

"No one blames you personally if a stage play flops," he said. "It isn't a career handicap."

"When you're on the stage and fluff a line there's nobody to say, 'That's okay, let's do it again, Charlie.'"

"We've got to make it alone—and that's good for you. Advertising representative: John W. Cullen Co."

ing in the movies doing a nuttish role in a Broadway play is like going into a gym and working out.

"It gets an actor, back into shape, as training does an athlete. It doesn't matter whether the play hits or misses. He has been helped."

Lemmon isn't exactly dazzled by his present ranking as a big-money comedy film star.

"It means one thing—that I now can go to the bank and get money for another picture," he said.

Here's Jack's own capsule philosophy of living:

"Be happy in yourself. Pick the field you like best, and work at your peak ability. If it's only laying bricks, lay them as best you can—and you can't really lose."

A very relaxing man, and good company—on or off the screen.

LISBON — Chief Probation Officer Richard Rose today released his annual report on probations from the two common pleas courts.

Thirty-two investigations for probation were completed during the year. Beginning Jan. 1, 1960, there were 80 persons on probation.

Six probation cases are with other departments, one is a veterans' hospital, one's whereabouts is unknown and eight cases are out of juvenile court. They are all supervised by Rose.

In 1960, 11 cases were terminated when their probation expired. Sixteen were cited for probation violations, of which 11 were sentenced. Two cases are currently being investigated for probation, and two are pending for hearing. Twenty-one persons were granted probation during the year.

Amazing but true. You save 332,100 Lire or about $538.00 over a ten year period by heating water with gas rather than by any other automatic method. And, modern automatic gas water heaters give you better hot water service, because gas is up to 3 times faster. You never run out of hot water with a flame

Small Youngstown South Quintet Tests Salem Tonight

Warriors Will Use Good Shooting, Speed In Effort to Halt Quakers

By DICK BRAUTIGAM

Youngstown South, probably the smallest team the Quakers will face all season, will be in town tonight in an effort to halt Salem's 10-game winning streak.

The tilt at the Salem Senior High School gym is scheduled for 8:30 p.m. The reserve game is carded at 7 p.m.

South doesn't have a senior or a six-footer in the starting line-up. Four of the regulars are 5-10 and the other is 5-9. However, the Warriors have demonstrated their ability to get "off their feet" and despite their lack of height, they have managed to break even in 12 games.

TWO OF SOUTH'S losses came at the hands of a pair of rugged Western Pennsylvania outfits. Farrell and Sharon. The Warriors lost to Farrell, 69-30, and to Sharon, 64-48.

Other defeats were administered by Youngstown Chaney, 62-45; Boardman, 55-48; Youngstown Ray, 66-65; and Liberty, 67-63. Victories have come over Girard, 46-40; Steubenville, 75-59; Youngstown North, 66-57; Youngstown Wilson, 87-66; Canton Timken, 72-43; and Niles, 56-49. Five of the Warriors' six victories have come in succession.

South has made up for its lack of height by combining blazing speed with fine shooting ability.

THE TWO TOP SCORERS "on the squad have been John Tensley, 5-10 junior center, and Ernie McElroy, 5-9 sophomore guard. Ernie is another member of the basketball playing McElroy family which has kept the Youngstown cage scene supplied with fine talent for several years.

Other starters are Ed Rivers, Jim Jones and Roy White, all 5-10.

Ohio State Tops College Cage Poll For Seventh Week

By The Associated Press

For the seventh straight week Ohio State tops the nation's college basketball teams with a perfect score in the weekly Associated Press ranking poll.

The unbeaten Buckeyes, who crushed Purdue 92-62 last week in the game that was expected to be a deciding factor in the Big Ten race, drew the unanimous vote of the 36-member AP panel of sports writers and broadcasters. They received the maximum of 360 points on a 10-9-8 etc. basis.

St. Bonaventure and Bradley, due to settle their second-place argument in a head-to-head meeting in New York's Madison Square Garden Thursday, continued their close race for the runner-up spot. St. Bonaventure received 22 second-place votes and nine for third to place 305 points. Bradley polled 281 points with 11 votes for second and 22 for third.

The voting was based on results of games through last Saturday. The top 10, with first place votes in parentheses:

1. Ohio State (36)
2. St. Bonaventure
3. Bradley
4. Duke
5. North Carolina
6. Iowa
7. Louisville
8. Southern California
9. St. John's
10. Kansas State

Greenford Still In Running

Inter-County League Title Up for Grabs

The Inter-County League title will be up for grabs this week, and an encounter between loop-leading McDonald and runner-up Lowellville on Saturday at Lowellville should produce the winner.

Both teams are unbeaten in loop play. McDonald has a 3-0 mark while Lowellville is 2-0. The Blue Devils can mathematically clinch the crown by coping their final two league tilts — one tonight against Western Reserve and the other on Saturday against Lowellville.

COACH JERRY SUESS' Greenford Bobcats still aren't out of the title picture. The Bobcats are 1-1 in league play with tilts remaining against Western Reserve and Lowellville. Greenford will be cheering for Lowellville to upset McDonald on Saturday because then the Bobcats would be in a position to share the crown with the Rockets and Blue Devils.

Fairfield-Waterford and North Lima are out of the picture with two defeats. The Rebels have a game on Friday against Western Reserve, a team that has lost its only league contest.

Pounds Meissner's In City Cage Loop

Beall Battery & Electric became the first team in the Salem Class A basketball loop to push over the century mark in a game this season as it buried Meissner's Sohio 104-54, Monday night at the Memorial Building.

Theron's IGA took over sole possession of first place by virtue of a 73-45 victory over Coy Brothers Trucking. In the other game last night, Old Dutch snapped back from its upset loss to First National Bank last week by handing Bricker & Bricker Construction its first setback of the second round.

ALTHOUGH the second round has just gotten underway, there are only two teams with unblemished marks. They are Theron's (2-0) and Herron Transfer (1-0).

Beall's combined superior height with excellent teamwork in rolling up its 104-54 win over Meissner's. Three men accounted for 80 of Beall's 104 points. Ed Daugherty pumped in 32, Bob Morlan added 28 and Gary Lindesmith hooped 20.

Carson McNeely and Sonny Bowman were high for Meissner's with 15 and 15 points, respectively. Meissner's battled Beall's to a 22-22 deadlock in the opening period, but the winners kept right on hitting while the losers tailed off.

FIRST ROUND CHAMPION Old Dutch evened its second round record at 1-1 as John Sturgeon's 20 points paced a six-point decision over Bricker's. Burt Patterson hooped 22 and Gene Kitzmiller added 17 for the losers. Bricker's had previously upset Beall's this round, 63-61.

Mount Union's Bill Davis tallied 23 points in leading Theron's IGA to its easy win over Coy's. Jack Dowd chipped in with 19 markers and Bobby Adams had 16.

Dale Gromley's 17 points paced Coy's.

Hit 39 Homers Last Year

Maris Signs Contract With

Yanks for Reported $33,000

By JACK HAND

Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—The case of Roger Maris is a puzzle. He hits 39 homers, drives in 112 runs, wins the Most Valuable Player award and what happens? Everybody asks, "Why did you slump?"

Maris was questioned about his second-half slump Monday when he signed his contract with the New York Yankees for an estimated $33,000 salary. The guesses were that he got $21,000 last year.

"Estimated," you ask? Right. This is the informed guess of the baseball writers. Nobody who knows the official figures except Maris the Yanks — and the Internal Revenue Service next year.

Maybe Roger will tell the Mrs. He wouldn't even hint to the writers. "If anybody asks me how much I'm going to get, they won't find out," he said at the opening of the news conference.

Now, about the slump. Despite the homers, RBI and the MVP award, the figures do not lie. On July 20 Maris had hit 31 home runs in 83 games. At the end of the season he had hit only eight more in 53 games.

Maris had no alibis although he could have pointed to the rib injury that kept him out of the lineup from Aug. 14 to 31, except for a pinch-hitting appearance. In 1959 an appendectomy put him on the shelf and resulted in another tailspin at Kansas City.

"I've got my own theory," he said and then clammed up, except to add that "when a hitter goes sour there is not much he can do."

Cunningham Leads County in Scoring

East Liverpool's Kenny Cunningham has taken over the Columbiana County scoring lead from Jim Hartshorn of East Palestine.

Hartshorn dropped all the way from first to fourth in the close scoring duel in the county.

Lefty Guesseled Wrong SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Last spring, Giant hitting coach Lefty O'Doul worked with Jim Davenport, Willie Kirkland, Ed Bressoud and Hobie Landrith. He concentrated on them, and was willing to wager each would up their batting average 10 to 20 points.

Each had lower averages for 1960.

Here are the comparative figures with 1959 averages first: Davenport .258 to .251; Kirkland .272 to .252 and recently traded to Cleveland; Bressoud .251 to .255 and Landrith .251 to .252.

The four Giants lost a collective 62 points.

Big Luke Garners 19 To Pace OSU

By The Associated Press Match them against tough Big Ten competition or classy independents, play them at home or away, and you get the same result 20 straight times over a two-season span.

Monday night it was no different—Ohio State's bankers won again, their 15th straight this season—as the Badgers of Wisconsin bowed 100-68.

And once again it was All-American Jerry Lucas leading the Ohio State band in a frenzied version of "I've Got the World on a String."

One string was broken, however, when Lucas missed a foul shot early in the second half and his consecutive free throw hits stopped at 27, two short of the Big Ten record and matching teammate Larry Siegfried's skinned ended last week.

Big Luke garnered 19 points in leading the Buckeye attack. Siegfried and John Havlicek were right behind with 18 and 16, respectively. Mel Nowell added 14, Richie Hoyt 11.

All the regulars were pulled from the Badger floor with five minutes left in the first half and Ohio leading 43-20. By intermission the Bucks had built up a 51-26 advantage.

Ohio State continued to widen the margin in the second half. Coach Fred Taylor pulled out his regulars again for good with nine minutes to play and the Buckeyes in front 82-47.

Meanwhile, back at the ranch in Ohio, the Bobcats of Ohio U. were having a tough time of it subduing Kent State in a Mid-American Conference clash. It took three overtimes, but subdue the Golden Flashes they did, 89-83, Ohio U.'s second "extra inning" win in a row.

The Bobcats undefeated in seven conference games, were led by Capt. Bunk Adams with 34 points, eight of them coming in the third overtime to put victory over of reach for Kent, Pete Baltic also got 34 in a losing cause.

In other Ohio college tilts, Findlay had an easy time in winning its first Mid-Ohio League tilt in six tries, 74-56 over Ashland; a scoring duel between Norris Smith of Cedarville, who got 31 points, and Skip Griest of Roberts Wesleyan who made 32, highlighted the Yellow Jackets' 94-85 victory over their North Chili, N.Y., foes.

Kenyon used its regulars only 23 minutes in swamping Rensselaer of Troy, N.Y., 75-45; and Loyola of Chicago almost blew a 24-point second-half lead but hung on for a 74-69 triumph over Baldwin-Wallace.

Ohio U., which in 16 games has lost only three, was surprised in the first half by a fast-breaking Kent attack and the host Flashes led 37-29 at intermission.

The Bobcats were trailing 57-45 with 10 minutes to play when they started clicking. They made 11 of 16 field goal attempts, the last one by Adams with 30 seconds left tying the score at the end of regulation.

Kent led through most of the first overtime, but a basket by Bobcat Larry Kruger with nine seconds to go set the stage for the second extra period. In that one, Kruger got the last points to knot the score again.

WHEN NOT TO SPAR TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — Escarceza Martin, 32, of Tucson learned the hard way that there is a big difference between amateur and professional boxing.

Martin suggested to Ismal Marigo, 27-year-old ex-fighter, that they put on the gloves and spar a little. Marigo landed one blow.

Martin was treated at a Tucson hospital for a broken jaw.

Minerva Pulls Away In Tri-County

Columbiana Faces East Palestine

While the other contending teams have been busy bumping each other off, the Minerva Lions have pulled away from the field and seem headed for their third straight Tri-County League championship.

The Lions of Coach Don Lawther will be looking for their 37th consecutive Tri-County League victory and their 26th straight on their home court when they entertain the Louisville Leopards in one of four loop games on tap Friday.

SITTING IN SECOND place, two games behind Minerva with a 6-2 record, is the East Palestine Bulldogs of Coach Chick McBride. The Bulldogs have a big clash coming up on Friday at home against Columbiana.

The Clippers belted East Palestine, 71-45, earlier in the season, but the Bulldogs have gotten tougher and the Clippers have slipped badly since that encounter.

In other games Friday Coach Len Batcha's constantly improving Leetonia Bears will get a crack at the winless Lisbon Blue Devils; Poland will visit the Sebring Trojans; and Louisville will be at Minerva.

Saturday clashes will send Sebring to Columbiana, Minerva to Poland, Lisbon to Louisville, and East Palestine to Leetonia.

WIDENING His individual scoring lead in the loop last week was Big Don Miller of Minerva. Miller has 230 points in 12 games for a 19.2 average.

His nearest rival, Jim Hartshorn of East Palestine, has 218 markers in a dozen contests for an 18.2 average.

Columbiana's Rich Harrold held on third place. He has compiled a 16.3 average with 196 points in 12 games. Four of the top 12 scorers in the league are Columbiana Clippers.

Both Divisions Have New Leaders

Quakers Edge Into 16th Spot
In Class AA Basketball PollBy FRITZ HOWELL
Associated Press Sports Writer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The races for the top spots in Ohio's high school basketball scrap were wide open today as both state champions and Associated Press poll leaders went down to defeat last week.

Dayton Roosevelt's 37 - game winning streak foundered Friday in a double overtime 85-33 loss to Hamilton Garfield, while Salem Local's 37-game victory string was halted 92-82 by Belle Center as Dick Ricketts scored 44 points.

Fifty-two sports editors immediately voted Hamilton Garfield to the top spot in Class AA, trading positions with Roosevelt. Most of the ballots were mailed before Garfield ran into a stunning upset, 72-51, at the hands of Cincinnati Taft Saturday night. Roosevelt came right back to wreck Springfield South by 88-45 Saturday.

Ayersville of Defiance, sporting a 16-game winning streak, moved into the top rating in Class A. The 1957 state Class A champs drew 14 first place votes, far ahead of their closest competitors, and outranked Salem Local by 103 poll points on the 10-9-8-etc. voting basis.

Toledo Libbey dropped out of the Class AA Top Ten, unbeaten Cleveland West Tech moving in. Two changes popped up in Class A as once-beaten Dixie and twice-beaten Wakeman Western Reserve surrendered their berths to Belle Center and unbeaten Portsmouth East.

From here and there: Cincinnati Taft had dropped two of eight games before tagging Hamilton Garfield in the big one. Belle Center's lone loss was to Indian Lake, a team Salem Local nosed out by four points.

The toll will be terrific in Class A this week. Leading Ayersville (16-0) goes against third-ranked Convoys Crestview (14-0) Friday night. And in the eastern sector Old Washington and Freeport, each with a 16-0 record, clash tonight.

Class AA also have several unbeaten teams not listed in the upper bracket. Among them are Elmo and Warrenville with 13 Cleveland St. Joseph with 12, Columbus Linden with 11 and Franklin with 10.

Of the 52 votes cast in the poll, 22 were from the south and 30 from the north but seven of the Class AA Top Ten are from the rebel sector.

Dover St. Joe's 12-game streak is a school record—best previous was nine. Portsmouth's Trojans, knocking at the throne room door all season, made it 11-1 on a 79-58 win over Columbus East with Mike Haley, 6-5 senior, getting 34 points.

Athens with 15 straight, clinch its first league crown in 11 years by 74-30 over Wellston. Jon Hopkins 6-3, 200 - pound center for unbeaten fourth-ranked Kingman of Clinton County, hit his season high of 31 last week. District coaches call him the best ever in that area as he leads in scoring, assists, rebounds and the fast break. He's a straight A student, a standout baseball pitcher being scouted by the major leagues and he plans to attend an Ohio college.

East Liverpool's classy football-basketball standout, Ken Cunningham, scored 33 against New Philadelphia—but the latter won 69-67. Lorain played control ball to upset Sandusky 56-37, throwing the Buckeye Conference into a four way 5-2 tie with three games to go. Deadlocked with Lorain and Sandusky are Elyria and Marion Harding.

Jim Bothen of Hamilton Catholic scored 43 for a new city record in the 94-72 win over Hamilton Ross—hitting his average to 25.4. Dick Ricketts' 44 against Salem Local boosted the Belle Center star's average to 35.7. It may be the state's top mark.

Newark cashed 33 of 40 free throw in beating Marion 65-50. And Newark Catholic's Bob Rogers, a four-year letterman, hit 30 twice last week.

Don Spires, 6-6 one of the five starting juniors on the unbeaten Stanton Local team of Irondale, (seventh in Class A) poured in 35 in the 81-63 win over Salineville. First-year coach Harry Diehl, a West Virginia U. grad, has his boys putting on such a show that 90 per cent of Irondale's 775 citizens follow the team on the road.

Canton Lincoln looks rough in the northeast sector. The Lions have lost only to Dayton Roosevelt and Akron North, another powerhouse—and handed Toledo Macomber its only loss by 78-60.

Mansfield lost three straight overtime tilts—to Lima Central Catholic, Newark and Warren Harding—before bowing by six to Elyria. Three straight extra-half defeats could be a record, too.

Canfield Closes In On Turnpike Loop Title

The Canfield Cardinals can assure themselves of no worse than a tie for the Turnpike Conference crown this week by defeating winless Jackson-Milton on Saturday at North Jackson.

Canfield is the only unbeaten team in the conference. A victory over Jackson-Milton and one over Springfield Local next week would give them the title outright. If the Cards should stumble in either fray, four of the other five teams in the loop are waiting in the wings with just one loop loss.

Only Warren St. Mary's is mathematically out of the title picture. Besides the Canfield-Jackson-Milton clash on Saturday, there are two other conference games on tap this week and the United Eagles are involved in both of them. On Tuesday, the Eagles will entertain Jackson-Milton and on Saturday they will play host to Warren St. Mary's.

UNITED WILL BE A STRONG favorite in both of these tilts. A pair of victories for the Eagles would put them in the number two spot in the league with a 3-1 record. Springfield Local currently is the conference runner-up with a 2-1 mark.

Warren St. Mary's will be the only Turnpike conference team in action tonight. The Mohawks play host to Leavittsburg.

West Branch has just one game this week. That will be on Friday at Greenford against the Bobcats of the Inter-County League.

SPRINGFIELD LOCAL has a non-loop clash on Saturday at Beaver Local against the Beavers. United's Jerry Schaffer retained his individual scoring lead last week. Schaffer pumped in 23 points in the Eagles' win over Gnadenhuetten Friday to run his total for 13 games to 216. He is carrying a 16.6 average.

In the runner-up spot is Tom Baxter of West Branch. He has 186 markers in 12 tilts for a 15.5 average.

Here are the league standings and individual scoring leaders:

2	Springfield Local	2-1	6-7
3	West Branch	1-1	10-2

Lakers Trip Pistons;
Royals Belt Celtics

By The Associated Press
The Los Angeles Lakers, riding a four-game winning streak in the National Basketball Association, have their sights set on second place in the Western Division. The Lakers edged Detroit 117-116 Monday night to move to within 1 1/2 games of the runner-up Pistons. In the night's only other action, the Cincinnati Royals kept pace with Los Angeles by whipping the Boston Celtics 116-88. The Royals, fourth in the West, retained 1 1/2 games behind the Lakers.

Los Angeles pulled out the verdict in the fourth period after squandering an 18-point lead. The Pistons, trailing at halftime 63-52, scored 13 straight points at the outset of the third quarter to take a 65-63 lead.

Elgin Baylor of the winners headed the scoring parade with 28 points and five other Lakers' players garnered 15 or more.

Jack Twyman clicked for 41 points and rookie Oscar Robertson, apparently recovered from a hip injury, added 32 in Cincinnati's romp over Boston's Eastern Division pace-setters.

Tokyo-Takao Maemizo, Japan outpointed Kang Sae Chul Korea, 10 (middleweights).

THERON'S
OLD COUNTRY STORE

Columbiana-Lisbon Road

I started our Store as a hobby, and it grew into a fulltime business. Some of the things we do at our store make people wonder if we aren't crazy and tossing our money away. We are not interested in only making money but the satisfaction of our old and new friends is always our concern — I get more out of our business than just money!

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: Please send me a membership blank for your "Old - Too - Soon, Smart - Too - Late Club."

Here is my story and I hope you'll print it because if I had read such a letter eight years ago I wouldn't be writing to you now.

I started to go with a man who was married. He told me his wife was cold and she didn't understand him. He said I was the kind of woman he's been looking for all his life. He begged me to wait until he could "work something out."

After three years of waiting I gave him an ultimatum. He promised he's break the news to his wife as soon as he could put the house in shape to sell. It took over a year to get the place painted, re-shingled, landscaped and a patio added.

Then he pleaded with me to wait until his daughter graduated from high school. Another two years passed. After that his son became engaged, so naturally we had to wait until he was married. Another year shot. Then the daughter became engaged and we had to wait seven months for her to get married.

That wedding was last month. Now he tells me his wife is going through the menopause and he's afraid to tell her because she's very nervous and the shock may be too much.

When I told him that could mean another 10 years he shrugged his shoulders and said, "I just can't do this to her NOW."

Don't bother to give me any advice, Ann — right now I'm the world's best authority on this subject. In fact I can probably give you a few pointers to pass on to other jackasses like myself.

Thanks for letting me unload. It's been a relief to get it down on paper. — DESERVED WHAT I GOT.

Dear Deserved: No advice — you've got the situation taped. The line you bought is so familiar it ought to be put to music for dancing. Thanks for writing.

Feet on the Ground

Dear Ann: I'm going with a great guy who is 22 and has loads of qualities which I admire. His one big fault is that he doesn't have a car.

I know he makes $88 a week but he has to help out at home and he's also putting himself through night college. We always double date or take a bus and I just hate it. It's terribly inconvenient to go with another couple all the time as we have to make our plans fit in with theirs and it's a drag. Will you please give him a hint? — SUE ZQ.

Dear Sue: He doesn't need a hint. He needs money. If the fellow is as good as he sounds, consider yourself lucky to go with him on foot, by ox cart or pogo stick. It's the man that counts. Four wheels don't mean a thing.

Rock Shock

Dear Ann: I'm confused. You said in a recent column that you can't understand why a girl would want to keep an engagement ring that symbolizes a shattered romance.

I'm not a grasping female. In fact I returned an engagement ring just last week but why would the fellow accept the ring? Mine did and I was surprised. Surely if he becomes engaged again he wouldn't give the same ring to a new fiancée, would he? — STILL PUZZLED.

Dear Still: Probably not. But he could have it reset or take it back to the store and get a refund. The girl who breaks an engagement should insist that he take the ring back as a matter of integrity.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Salem News, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

The Doctor Says

By Dr. H. T. HYMAN

Cortical Steroids Good With Control

A discerning correspondent asks: "How is it that cortical steroids have so many different names and are used for so many different conditions that don't seem to be related? I'm getting injections of one preparation in a bursa. One of my fellow librarians is taking another in pill form for arthritis."

And her brother was relieved of an attack of asthma the other night with an injection of still another product.

To take the easiest question first. The cortical steroids are available in Dr. H. T. Hyman many forms, under many different names, merely as a means for identifying the products of different manufacturers.

Like the many different makes of automobiles, any one of which will take you where you want to go and bring you back, the different brands of cortical steroid are basically alike. They differ only in minor details like the size of the effective dose. One doctor uses one brand and another a competing brand, just as one drives a Ford and another a Chevrolet or a Plymouth.

JUST SO LONG as the individual doctor gets to know the brand he is using, it doesn't make much difference which he prescribes or injects. Like his car, it gets him and his patient where they want to go and, when they're ready to return, brings them back.

As for the more difficult question regarding the number and variety of conditions for which steroids are used, the explanation is more difficult.

The basic reaction of the human body to any injury is the process of inflammation. Whether you suffer a bump, a burn, an infection or an allergy, you'll react with the fundamental responses of pain, redness, heat and swelling. And, ordinarily you try to increase that reaction by rubbing the spot, applying a hot water bottle or an electric pad, soaking in a warm fluid, or anointing the area with an irritant like mustard or wintergreen oil.

Now every once in a while, the inflammatory reaction gets out of hand, like the kick of a gun. And when that happens the reaction may be worse than its cause. Too much reaction makes your bursa bulge until it aches. It limits the mobility of your fellow librarian's joints. It causes her brother's bronchial tubes to clamp down until he can't get air out or into his lungs.

IN EACH OF these instances, the cortical steroid acts like its parent, cold. It has an anti-inflammatory action that relieves each of you temporarily. Your bursa quiets down. Your companion's joints loosen up. And her brother's bronchi relax. But it cures nothing.

That's why your doctor gives you the smallest possible dose for the least possible time. And that's why you should never dose yourself with a cortical steroid without your doctor's permission and then only if you remain under his close supervision.
